EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears bellow. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as proved by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. The drawings filed on 5/10/01 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show texts or labels for all items of Figs. 1-7 as described in the specification. Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. See MPEP 608.02(d). Formal drawings are required to be submitted.
3. Authorization for this Examiner's Amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Thomas Fitzsimons (Reg. No. 40,607) on August 2, 2005.

In the Claims:

Please amend the claim 1 as follow:

An apparatus for initiating a document download comprising:

a memory with document download instructions associated to a product stored therein;

a wireless transmitter linked to said memory for transmitting said document download instructions via a wireless protocol;

a mechanical activation switch linked to at least one of said memory and said wireless transmitter, said mechanical activation switch for causing said wireless transmitter to retrieve said document download instructions from said memory and to transmit said instructions; and a shell containing said memory and said wireless transmitter, said shell having a passage for operable access to said mechanical activation switch, attachment means connected to said shell for attaching said shell to [[a]] the product.

Reasons for allowance

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's claimed invention distinguished over the prior art for the following reasons. The claims are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the references, either alone or in combination, discloses or renders obvious the method for downloading a document associated to a product comprising a wireless transmitter linked to a memory for downloading the document via wireless protocol, a mechanical activation switch linked to the memory for causing the document being downloaded to the memory and a shell contained the memory and wireless transmitter, which the shell attached to the product.

Conclusion

5. Any comments considering necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jinsong Hu whose telephone number is (571) 272-3965. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:00 AM - 5:30 PM.
